Inside the Republican Party of Orange County Central Committee

- Are you tired of watching the OCGOP repeatedly endorse and support RINO establishment primary candidates that hail from the Liz Cheney wing of the Republican Party?
- Are you offended that the OCGOP does little to support America First conservative candidates?

CPOC members and guests will hear inside analysis about what needs to happen for the OCGOP to start responding to America First conservatives!

California Republican Assembly: Knowing its Past for a Better Future

Celeste Greig, former President of the California Republican Assembly, who will speak on CRA structure and her history there. Her insights should be helpful in preventing past problems from repeating themselves as there are many well-intentioned volunteers in the OC working to ramp-up new CRA units.

PAULY'S PERSPECTIVE

A Message from Our President Deborah Pauly, J.D.

Give Thanks for Growing Strength and a Renewed Spirit of Freedom

There are many moving parts to the political season, just like there are many moving parts to war. We are at war. By “we,” I mean We, The People, who still hold fast to the terms of our great contract for how to form a more perfect, self-governing union. However, we are not just engaged in a political war or a war for the future of our Constitutional Republic, although it is also that. We are primarily engaged in one of the greatest times of spiritual warfare any of us have ever experienced.

At times it is overwhelming. The enemy overwhelms and diverts our valuable energy from the positive path we are taking to affect a good outcome. I have felt overwhelmed. When I remember who is ultimately in charge of the course of all time and over all creation, my spirit and energy are renewed like an eagle. Allow Him to renew your spirit, too.

Fact: The enemy has marched, largely unchecked, for the better part of two-decades inside our borders, inside our halls of government, the schools, the media, all of our major institutions and — sorry to say — inside the leadership of both major political parties. This includes the Republican Party of which I have been a member since my time as a young woman in the United States Air Force starting in 1979. Ronald Reagan was our commander-in-chief.

Some of us are born to be warriors.

I have long believed that the Republican platform is the best and right direction forward for our country. That’s why it saddens me to see the Grand Old Party (GOP) hijacked by RINOs — Republicans In Name Only, who present themselves as one thing, but their actions work in opposition to that very thing. I choose to be a warrior for that which is good and right and just — even if I must fight alone.

I’ve been producing PAULY’S PICKS for more than 15 years. Most recommendations are based on my personal interactions, research, voting records and historical knowledge. Some recommendations are based on the input of highly trusted and true patriots. None of the recommendations are based on the endorsements of our now corrupted OC GOP. If there is any overlap, it is merely a coincidence that their manipulated process got it right. Click here to access PAULY’S PICKS on our website.

The GOP has been pushing citizens to vote early. They have morphed Election Day into an Election Month. This has further confused and complicated a process that is now broken beyond recognition. See pages 4, 12 and 14. Look forward to an Election Integrity Update at the November meeting.

CPOC is populated by citizen soldiers who understand what's at stake. So many activists and patriots have come forward to join the ranks of CPOC. In 10 months (two while we were dark for the summer), CPOC has grown from 13 members to over 250 members. (See page 11.) It is so encouraging to know how many of us there are who still hunger for the spirit of freedom upon which our nation was founded. For that, I am truly grateful. Let's fight together.

In October, many great patriots came together for the PARADE AT THE PODIUM. The candidates who presented themselves were inspiring as they participated in old-school stump speeches and presented their political platforms. (See pages 5 and 6.)

November's meeting is going to be a time of Thanksgiving, fellowship, education and peaceful renewal. We will enjoy a traditional, plated Thanksgiving dinner. Marc Ang will provide a brief Election Analysis.

Interim Election Integrity Committee Leaders Cheryl Frink and Susan Stivers will provide an update on what the team has discovered and accomplished this cycle.

SPECIAL PRESENTATIONS

- 1) Long-time political activist and former President of the California Republican Assembly Celeste Creig will provide exceptional insight into the inner workings and structure of the CRA.
- 2) Understand how the Republican Party is structured and elected during a briefing to be followed by a FIRESIDE CHAT between three-time Fullerton Mayor and current Mayor Pro Tem Bruce Whitacker and myself. We both served as elected members of the Central Committee prior to 2020.

CPOC is still seeking a treasurer to assume duties in January 2023 with training and assistance by the current elected treasurer Nancy Tucker.

NOTE: Seats are going fast for our Fantasy of Trees Holiday luncheon. If you aren't there, you'll be sad that you missed it. (See pages 9 and 10)

Our work now and through 2023 is all about 2024!
Be part of the solution to save the nation!

Heavenly Father,

We acknowledge You as the Creator of the Heavens and the Earth. You are the eternal, holy and righteous God Who has given us the gift of life, both physical and spiritual. May we honor You as we daily use that precious gift.

May we be blessed with discernment and wisdom as we make our voting decisions regarding the upcoming election.

Give us governmental authorities who will assume their offices with clean hands and pure hearts. May they be humble before You to respect and obey You.

Bless us with Your love, protection from evil and the joy in knowing You.

Amen.

November 11, a 400-Year Celebration of...

By Betts Rivet,
Americanism Chairwoman

The landing of the Mayflower in the 'New World' in 1620! In fact, it was winter and they found a snow covered village called Corn Hill where they first encountered the Wampanoag Tribe. Luckily, no animosity existed between the Pilgrims and the Indians yet the new settlers remained on the ship during the winter months. Those months were difficult because they had little food but, as history is revealed, the tribal leaders knew how to survive in that climate and helped these strange looking arrivals with food.

I wonder if you know that the MAYFLOWER set sail for a new land two times before its third and final voyage. There was the crew plus 102 passengers (including two pregnant women and about a dozen children). The trip took months to cross 3,000 miles of open ocean. Unfortunately, due to a poor food supply and crippling bouts of seasickness, half of the passengers died on the ocean trip and during the first winter docked at what we now call Plymouth Rock. Conservative Chronicle readers will be interested knowing that the Mayflower landing was planned for the Virginia coast and not the New England area. Apparently, strong winds blew the ship off course.

Many Americans can trace their ancestry back to one or more of the individuals who became known as Pilgrims. So, on November 11, think about those tough, courageous separatists from England who gave up everything to start anew in America 400 years ago. Pictured: Mayflower in Plymouth Harbor by William Halsall

The election of President Trump was an eye opener for many in the GOP. It served to expose the old guard and those within leadership positions who were beholden to the Great Reset Oligarchy who with a few exceptions control both sides of the aisle. The trickle down "I'll scratch your back if you scratch mine" operational process as practiced by the likes of Romney, McConnell, Graham, the Bushes, Paul Ryan, McCarthy, and so many others is now out in the open and it is why there was no change when we had both sides of Congress and the Presidency during the Bush years. It is and has been unbeknown to us a Uniparty. From Soros to Gates, they have bought up large segments of both houses.

Those who object and attempt to silence the critics are aiding and abetting the RINOS. The RINOS undermine President Trump because he is not part of the swamp and they are now gearing up for DeSantis as a replacement candidate in 24' by enriching his coffers to the tune of over $200 million. We can actively work for a GOP win while working simultaneously behind the scenes to elect MAGA candidates at the local, state, and national level.

Conservative Patriots of Orange County Mission Statement:

"The Conservative Patriots of Orange County sponsor educational programs and activities to support conservative principles and candidates in all elections. We believe that the Constitution of the United States guarantees the inherent rights of "we the people" by limiting the power of government.

WHAT IF YOUR BANK CANCELS YOU?

It seems kinda easy to support a bank or other financial institution that cancels someone who has posted hateful comments that most decent Americans find disturbing. For example, Kanye West for posting ignorant anti-Semitic tweets that respectable Americans viewed as hateful.

But is canceling West a trial balloon?

What happens when comments and posts are just two different opinions? For instance, your house has a "Trump Won" flag. You take photos and post them on your Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter accounts. However, your neighbor calls you an election denier and finds the flag hateful. Will YOUR woke bank then cancel YOU?

Membership Chair

Greetings CPOC Patriots!

With Bidenflation, who doesn't want to save a few dollars? You can by renewing your CPOC 2023 membership NOW!

Many members have already sent in their renewal. We are offering the current 2022 membership rate for 2023 for all renewals received before December 31, 2022. It's just $25 for single membership or $40 for couples. WOW—WHAT A DEAL!!!

We encourage you to take advantage of this outstanding deal before the New Year! Due to Bidenflation, membership prices will increase $5 per person effective January 1, 2023.

Tell your patriot family, friends and neighbors about the most exciting organization in Orange County, they can obtain the same membership rate as long as they join before the end of the year. Remember, membership includes regular news releases, E-blasts on time sensitive issues and our fantastic Conservative Chronicle that keeps you current on what is happening throughout Orange County. From issues at the OC Registrar or Voters and OC Board of Supervisors to various cities, our detailed reporting can't be found anywhere else. (Do you expect the local media to offer a patriot perspective?)

Renewing or joining is so easy! You can print the application included in this issue and mail it with payment to the address at the bottom of the application. Or, if you prefer, renew online with your credit card at our website conservativepatriotsofoc.org. Whichever way you choose, remember to complete all the information on the application (print or online).

Thank you so much for being a valued member of CPOC and a force for good in Orange County!

CPOC is an autonomous non-partisan, 527 political not-for-profit with membership open to a broad spectrum of political affiliations. We support limited government, local control, sound fiscal management, the free market and holding elected officials accountable.

CPOC adheres to the values and principles of our nation's founding as contained in the Constitution of the United States of America.

Mail in Ballots Found in Dumpster in Lake Elsinore

"More evidence mounts concerning breaches of integrity in our California elections," said CPOC President Deborah Pauly. "Mass mailings of ballots opens the door to massive points of entry to fraud. This article is a must read for our members."

The article below by Jeff Housman —"Mail-in Ballots Found in Dumpster in Lake Elsinore" was posted on California Political Review (October 23, 2022).

An investigation is under way after mail-in ballots and voter information guides for the Nov. 8 election were found inside a dumpster at a Lake Elsinore apartment complex, officials said.

The Riverside County Registrar of Voters received a report about the discovery on Wednesday, Oct. 19, the registrar's office said in an emailed statement. The U.S. Postal Service confirmed the report.

It's unclear how many ballots and guides were found in the dumpster or where the apartment complex in question is located. A resident reported on social media that at least 100 pieces of election-related mail were in the trash.

The ballots and guides were recovered and mailed the same day, the registrar's office and postal service said. Elections officials and postal service inspectors are investigating and the matter has been referred to law enforcement, according to Patrick Munar, a registrar's spokesperson.

A referral also was made to the postal service inspector general, postal service spokesperson Duke Gonzales said via email.

"We take very seriously any allegation of mishandling mail," Gonzales said.

On Facebook, Lake Elsinore resident Jennifer Bollman posted two photos of what she said were the ballots and guides found in the dumpster.

A neighbor discovered the material in the dumpster while taking out the trash, Bollman wrote.

"She recovered what she could and placed (them in) front of our mailboxes but there were still over 100 left in the dumpster that she could not reach," Bollman's post read.

She also wrote: "This is ABSOLUTELY NOT RIGHT. This is why we should not have Mail-In Ballots unless requested. Our election system is corrupt and this is why. I don't care what your political affiliation is. THIS SHOULD BE TAKEN VERY SERIOUSLY."

Voters concerned that their ballot or voter guide may have been affected by the incident can call postal service consumer affairs at 858-674-2670 or the postal inspection service at 877-876-2455.

In an effort to make voting more accessible, every California registered voter is mailed a ballot ahead of the November election. Oct. 10 was the deadline for registrars to start mailing ballots.

Voters can sign up at california.ballottrax.net to get an email or text when their vote-by-mail ballot is mailed and when their ballot is received and verified by their local registrar.

Voting by mail has come under scrutiny, especially among Republicans, over concerns the ballots could be compromised.

Election audits and investigations by media outlets and other groups found no evidence of widespread voter fraud in the U.S. Riverside County officials insist voting by mail is safe and that the system has built-in protections against fraud and voters who try to cast multiple ballots in the same election.

O. C. Board of Supervisors Mtg—10/4/22: Public Comments

by Cheryl Frink

There were 19 people that signed up to speak. The board voted on whether to hear public comment before going into closed session. The vote was 4-1 to delay us from speaking with only Supervisor Don Wagner voting in to allow us to speak and not wait another hour. Supervisors Andrew Doe and Katrina Foley failed to return. They showed total disrespect for the people they are supposed to represent. Not all speakers could wait but they made calls to the offices of both Doe and Foley to express their outrage.

It is critical that we continue showing up before this board to express our findings and concerns over our broken systems. The next Board of Supervisors next meeting is Tuesday, November 8 and we encourage CPOC members to sign up to make a public comment. Please contact all Susan Stivers or Cheryl Frink (email addresses below) to sign up. We continue to provide talking points for people to speak at each meeting.

Recent highlights and comments from the October 4 board meeting are as follows:

A key moment in this meeting was the delivery of 1,553 declarations holding Frank Kim, Clayton Chau and the entire board accountable for their failures to uphold their duties regarding mask and vaccine mandates and election integrity. Chuck Emanuel delivered the documents along with two others from the New California group. There is a plan of action to continue this with the sheriff and district attorney for investigation and court action.

The State of California is currently ranked 49th out of 50 states as having the worst scores for election integrity. These voting policies continue to erode the sanctity of free and fair elections guaranteed to us by the U.S. Constitution. As public officials they were put on notice to uphold their oath of office. They must return our system back to one day voting, on paper ballots with voter ID and in small precincts that allow for hand counting.

The Orange County Board of Supervisors was informed that per Bob Page, our current Registrar of Voters, the county currently pays over $16 million dollars per election cycle. This is an obscene amount of money and total waste of resources. Millions of dollars can be saved by returning to same day voting, elimination of mail in ballots and drop boxes. These funds can be better spent on education, crime and drug prevention and community services. As supervisors it is their job is to be fiscally accountable and protect against wasting our tax dollars.

Deputy Director of the Orange County Registrar of Voters Justin Berardino was quoted as saying, "...on the citizenship point, voters attest under penalty of perjury that they are eligible to vote. We have no authority to confirm citizenship". This is like a bank allowing the free flow of counterfeit currency into their system. This would result in the FDIC immediately closing the bank. In the same way, this Registrar of Voters office must be shut down or reformed due to their complete disregard for the sanctity of our votes. They are not fulfilling their sworn duty to conduct secure elections which dictates only legal citizens may vote. The Board of Supervisors has financial control over this department and must demand that all voters present legal status to include current ID and proof of residency in the County in which they are voting.

O. C. Board of Supervisors Mtg—11/2/22: Public Comments

by Cheryl Frink

The board of Supervisors held a special meeting to adopt a resolution declaring a local emergency to include respiratory syncytial virus, more commonly referred to as RSV, and other respiratory viruses. With less than a 24 hour notice the public was called to action to show up and voice their public comments against this Emergency Health Declaration.

The meeting allowed 22 public speakers to share their concern and outrage over this pseudo emergency. They stated that this would be a precursor to more mandates for masking, vaccines, and school or business closures. The lack of natural immunity is a direct result of these misguided mistakes and repeating the same folly is pure madness.

The citizens spoke up with facts and heartfelt passion which was met by a distracted and disengaged Board of Supervisors. They failed to make any eye contact with the citizens as each one came up to the podium to demand a no vote on this issue.

The meeting became more raucous as the disdain for them became more intense. Even as they were called out for their lack of respect and disdain the Supervisors still failed to give any eye contact except for Lisa Bartlett who eventually succumbed to the request for attention.

CHOC Hospital currently has 262 beds for infants and pediatric care. This temporary surge of RSV infections only requires a licensing change to increase the number of beds so why is this a county emergency? The real issue, as described by the current county health officer, is a countrywide lack of qualified pediatric staff which renders the number of beds to be meaningless.

In the end the Supervisors took a voice vote and unanimously passed this resolution and proceeded to quickly exit the board room. A sad day for a government that is supposed to be by the people and for the people.

same folly is pure madness."

American Thinker

Non-Partisan Elections Are Non-Existent

by Robin Itzler

In today's very partisan environment, where Democrats and Republicans have completely opposed views on critical issues, it is imperative to know the political registration of all people running for local offices — especially city councils and school boards.

For most Americans, the political party they are registered with is an introduction to their personal values and core beliefs. Learning a city council and school board candidate's party affiliation should be the first step in reviewing their bona fides.

However, we can no longer assume party affiliation is enough information. For instance, Liz Cheney is a registered Republican and former Democrat-now-Independent Tulsi Gabbard is a registered Democrat. Which one would you vote for?

Plus, many Republicans have switched to no party preference (NPP) or Independent.

Once you know their party affiliation, there's more to do since the Republican candidate might not share your conservative values. The second step is learning their positions on major issues. For incumbents, it means reviewing their voting record. The NPP candidate or Independent (who might even be a former Republican) could have more America First positions than the registered Republican. Alaska Senator Lisa Murkowski and Illinois Representative Adam Kinzinger are both registered Republicans. Would you vote for either one based on their positions?

The third step is doing your own research. This includes seeking out knowledgeable and influential people you trust. Ask which candidates and propositions they support.

As founder and editor of Patriot Neighbors, a free weekly newsletter, my influence is primarily with local races that can be won or lost with just a few votes. In 2018, National Public Radio went back 20 years reviewing local races that were decided by ONE vote. There have been many local elections won by fewer than 10 votes.

Since the 1970s, Democrats have used the non-partisan ruse to elect Marxist-leaning candidates — and they are still doing it. This would have continued incognito (long after the Big Guy and his best bud Corn Pop retired to Delaware), but the “plandemic” came and changed everything. Huddled at home during lockdowns, horrified parents discovered what their school board had approved for their children's curriculum: ethnic studies, critical race theory, gender indoctrination, and the anti-America 1619 project, to name a few topics that can pervert a child's mental health.

By the time masks made as much sense as a Vice President and Border Czar-in-name-only Kamala Harris word salad speech, conservative parents across the United States were demanding to know what their schools were teaching and what their city councils were approving. With parental rights at the forefront, it now became imperative to elect conservatives. This meant learning each candidate's position on issues and their party affiliation.

Some districts across the United States have had amazing success returning school boards and/or city councils to conservative majorities. However, more must be done, especially in Blue states. Here are some suggestions for American Thinker readers. Select one or two to help make it a Red Wave on Election Day:

Lawn signs — They can make a “yuge” difference. Neighbors are often persuaded to support candidates or propositions when they see multiple homes with lawn signs throughout their community. If you live in an apartment, place a sign in your front window.

Lawn signs for others — Pick up a few extra signs and ask family and friends to put one in their yard or window.

T-shirts, hats, and buttons — When you are out and about in the neighborhood wear a t-shirt, hat, or button for your candidate. Just as with lawn signs, it persuades or confirms a decision regarding a candidate.

Social media — Proudly announce who you plan to vote for and include the link to the candidate's website.

Continues on next page

Social media — Proudly announce who you plan to vote for and include the link to the candidate's website.

Be a conservative keyboard advocate — Write letters to local newspaper editors and post comments on community websites about why you are supporting a candidate.

Write postcards, make phone calls, knock on doors — Contact your candidate and offer to handwrite personalized postcards. Phone banks and door knocking allow personal conversations that are very important in today's voice message world.

Distribute flyers — Walk your neighborhood distributing flyers for your candidate.

Bumper stickers — Visible, especially in traffic congestion.

Word of mouth — Simple, easy, and effective.

Call local radio shows — From Bidenflation to surging crime to open borders, share your candidate's position on these headline issues.

Hold a meet and greet at your home — With a box of cookies and bottled water, open your backyard or living room so neighbors can meet the candidate and ask questions in an intimate setting.

Election Integrity: observing — Volunteer to be an observer at your registrar of voters' facility or be a poll watcher at a voting center.

Remember, everyone can do something!

MAGAs (or "semi-fascists" as Biden calls us patriots) want candidates who support the America First agenda, and that starts by electing conservatives to school boards and city councils. Lest we not forget philosopher George Santayana's wise words, "Those who forget the past are condemned to repeat it."

Please help get out the vote and make it a Red Wave or even Red Tsunami on November 8!

"Patriotism means to stand by the country. It does not mean to stand by the president or any other public official, save exactly to the degree in which he himself stands by the country. It is patriotic to support him insofar as he efficiently serves the country. It is unpatriotic not to oppose him to the exact extent that by inefficiency or otherwise he fails in his duty to stand by the country. In either event, it is unpatriotic not to tell the truth, whether about the president or anyone else."

26th President (1901 - 1909)

GO WOKE GO BROKE

Below are several companies that promotes values that do not align with conservative ethics of Faith, Family, Freedom and Country. If you agree, show your contempt by avoiding purchases from these national/international corporations whenever possible. By using our wallets to protest, conservative patriots can send a big message to companies that are insanely going woke.

DC COMICS: Go woke, go broke with this series?

The latest "go woke, go broke" example is DC Comics canceling Superman: Son of Kal-El. The book series was launched in 2021 and will have its final installment published in December. Surely everyone is anxiously waiting to learn more about bisexual Jonathan Kent, the son of Clark Kent and Lois Lane. Jonathan has been soooo busy throughout his short comic life: focusing on climate change, school shootings and rescuing illegal aliens. Jon sometimes even wore a mask because everyone knows how face coverings prevented the spread of COVID. (Not!)

DC Comics started in 1935, during the Great Depression. Today it is one of the largest English-language publishers of comics and graphic novels. As part of Warner Bros./Warner Media, they play a crucial role in influencing young people in film, television, consumer products, home entertainment and interactive games.

Most of us remember that Superman's motto was, "Truth, justice and the American way."

In October 2021, DC Comics changed it to, "Truth, justice and a better tomorrow."

Time will tell if DC Comics/Warner Bros. understands why Superman: Son of Kal-El failed so miserably. If you want to share your thoughts with DC Entertainment CEO Diane Nelson:

ULTA BEAUTY IS ULTA WOKE!

Why are progressives doing everything possible to erase women? Their goal appears to be that males can take on female roles, starting in sports and going to their ridiculous insistence that MEN can give birth. The beauty giant store ULTA appears on board with this insanity. As reported by PJ Media on October 16 in "Makeup Giant Ulta Goes Woke Highlighting 'Trans Girl' Dylan Mulvaney, Customer Base of Real Women Revolts":

Ulta may be regretting whatever marketing "genius" came up with this idea. In a recent post on Twitter, Ulta highlighted a podcast with two grown men in makeup and wigs chatting about what it's like to be a "girl." The makeup giant's target audience is obviously women. It's probably a safe bet that over 90% of Ulta's customers are women. The choice to put men in drag in the marketing material for a company geared toward women is backfiring big time.
