PAULY'S PERSPECTIVE

A Message from Our President Deborah Pauly, Esq.

What I Did Over My Summer Vacation

Do you remember when you were a youngster and school started back up in the fall? One of the first assignments was to write an essay about what you did over summer vacation. That was my September assignment from The Conservative Chronicle's Editor-in-Chief Robin Itzler. I laughed. Robin is always so much fun and of cheerful spirit in her work. Alright, I'll do that!

When I was a kid, I remember thinking I didn't have much to write about. I had spent the summer at Vacation Bible School; and at lake summer camp canoeing without a life vest and catching crawdads using bacon as bait; and in the cool of the summer night playing "Ghost in the Graveyard," a version of tag, with the back fence as "home base;" and working with the other neighborhood kids to catch fireflies trying to fill a glass jar; and jumping double-dutch while the Moms in the neighborhood took turns spinning the ropes between sips of wine coolers; and having spontaneous watermelon seed spitting contests; and racing down the street on my bike to the local creek to catch tadpoles. I wasn't even wearing shoes, let a crash helmet, plus knee and wrist guards.

It's amazing that any of us survived.

Little did I know, at that time, I was writing a history that fills the heart with joy and sweet remembrances of youth and innocence and a time when American greatness was never questioned, but embraced with the ferocious spirit one conjures if a beloved member of the family is attacked.

Well...we're under attack. Our great country is under attack. More and more great Americans recognize this fact and are rising up to come together to fight for Her restoration. I guess fundamentally I spent my summer vacation preparing for that battle.

The first thing I did over my summer vacation was get sworn into the California State Bar as an attorney. You'll notice the little "Esq." for esquire after my name. It feels very pretentious and haughty, but it took me over four years to earn it, so I'm going to proudly wear it. I was very honored to have many members of CPOC and the CPOC board attend that private swearing-in ceremony at Trinity Law School, then stick around for food and fellowship. Their well-wishes and smiling faces are seared in my mind as a great memory that I will take with me forever.

The next thing I did over my summer vacation was accept a position as staff attorney at The Lex Rex Institute, a Constitutional advocacy non-profit law firm that is fighting for all of the things that you and I care deeply about. I always find it interesting how God works. CPOC's Election Integrity (EI) committee had invited a brilliant, young attorney named Alexander Haberbush to brief during our EI-focused meeting in May.

It was obvious that The Lex Rex Institute (LRI) was being overwhelmed with work because the attacks on our constitutional rights have been so great and the number of law firms willing to take on these issues have been so few. He was founding The Lex Rex Institute, as I was finishing law school. You will be hearing more from Alexander, starting with the September 2023 meeting, when we finally realize a goal set in September 2022 to establish a Legal Action Committee.

(An Aside: I filled in for LRI on Politics and The Pulpit Radio with Pastor Jerry Cook. You can listen here.)

Even though CPOC was supposed to be dark in July and August, another interesting and unexpected confluence of opportunities merged together, sparking one of the best events we've ever had: the LowDown HoeDown! If you were not there, you missed a great time of food, fellowship, the awesome country and western James Kelly Band, fantastic authentic venue and a terrific speaker, Dr. John Eastman, an alleged co-conspirator in indictments against former President Donald J. Trump.

This LowDown HoeDown was only possible due to the generosity of great CPOC members Irma Goerner, Fran and Bill Klovstad, plus Carol Bowen and the fabulous CPOC board. See coverage in this issue, plus a great Epoch Times article.

Over the past two months, the CPOC Reform Orange County Caucus has been meeting twice weekly as we put the structure, resources, and people in place to take back the Republican Party of Orange County. You will be hearing more about that at the September meeting, when new CPOC member Jennye Bigelow briefs on the data she has compiled toward that effort. Jennye also serves as Vice President of the California Republican Assembly.

Continued...

Did you notice that Jennye is a new member? That's another thing we have done on our summer vacation was recruit new members. We now tip 300. See our Membership Director Michele Markel's report on page 11. Our goal is to recruit another 200 members by December. Please, do your part to help achieve that objective.

Bring your friends to September's meeting because it is going to be a great kick-off to the election season. We will have a report from our faithful Education Committee Chairwoman Linda Cone. Hardworking members of the Election Integrity committee will report on their meetings with four of the five members of the OC Board of Supervisors, which they secured and managed over the summer.

We have two special guests, Jane Rice, who is working with CPOC member Rick Nelson to qualify a local land use control initiative for the ballot. I was invited to a private screening of her briefing and it is wonderful. CPOC will get a truncated version of it, but material will be available for distribution and Our Neighborhood Voices will have an information table in the ballroom, which you can visit during our dessert and fellowship break!

Meetings, which include a delicious buffet dinner, are held at the upscale Elks Lodge in Santa Ana.

Finally, we will have the first of several federal level candidates, as Eric Early, who is running for U.S Senate presents himself, his qualification and his vision to you for your consideration.

We are beginning the vetting process and other candidates will be presented in October and November.

The official ramp up to the March 5 Primary Election traditionally starts over the Labor Day Weekend. We've been preparing for it. We've been preparing to welcome you back to our powerful, fast-paced meetings, as CPOC connects and serves the Patriot community in Orange County.

Are you tired of losing? Then you belong here with us! You should belong to Conservative Patriots of Orange County!

See you there!

We NEED Our Men in the Battle!

President Deborah Pauly, Esq. opened the meetings discussing a variety of issues facing Orange Countians. The flyer behind her was designed by Newsletter Editor Robin Itzler to promote the Patriot rainbow of red, white, and blue during June.

Cari Swan, 72nd Assembly District Representative, discussed how Patriots can reform the OC GOP.

Education Committee Chair Linda Cone (right) updated members about issues throughout the county.

Election Integrity Co-Chair Cheryl Frink spoke about board of supervisor meetings and other concerns regarding the Registrar of Voters.

Preparing for America's 250th Anniversary

by Betts Rivét, Americanism

The United States Semi-quincentennial or Quarter Millennial will be the 250th anniversary of the 1776 United States Declaration of Independence which was signed in Independence Hall in Philadelphia. Festivities will be scheduled for July 4th, 2026 to mark various events leading up to the anniversary.

When the Declaration of Independence was written by the Committee of Five, it proclaimed that July 4th would be the date on which the anniversary of independence would be observed. There was no formal government sponsored semicentennial (50th anniversary) that year. However, there were nationwide centennial observances centered around the Exposition in Philadelphia in 1876 and bicentennial observances took place throughout the country.

Interesting note, John Adams and Thomas Jefferson were members of the Committee of Five who both died on July 4th 1826.

Coming back to the present, the Semi-quincentennial Commission plans for casting a new public bell to honor 250 years of women's contributions to the American story. Also, the United States Mint has been directed to redesign coins for 2026. It calls for a series of five designs for the quarter, including one depicting women's contributions to independence. National celebrations will focus on Boston, Charleston, Philadelphia, and New York: cities of historical importance leading up to the Declaration of Independence.

So, this article is a heads-up of what is ahead in 2026. There will be national celebrations that will include a lot more than is spelled out in this article. July 4th, 2026, will be a day to remember wherever you live in the United States, celebrating the independence of the 13 colonies from British rule. God bless the United States of America.

CJR CONSERVATIVE JOURNAL REVIEW

BY RYAN E. JULY 30, 2023

Samuel Alito: 'I Have To Defend Myself'

Justice Samuel Alito has a message for America's liberals and anyone else who's trying to bully him around:

He's going to fight for what's right.

Contrary to most Democrats in this country, Alito actually has some pretty strong morals. He's going to stick to them, and if he's able to do that, he's not going to be bullied into changing who he is because America's left gets fussy.

"I have to defend myself," Alito said recently.

"I marvel at all the nonsense that has been written about me in the last year," Samuel said. "At a certain point, I've said to myself, nobody else is going to defend me, so I have to defend myself."

America's liberals have been trying to bully America's Supreme Court around ever since Roe v. Wade was overturned.

As soon as the system stops working to only the benefit of liberals, they want to immediately change the rules.

They're claiming that they want to impose ethics codes on the Supreme Court to keep things fair.

But that's not what Alito thinks Congress' ultimate goal is.

Alito believes that this is just the first step in the left's plan to eventually have their liberal federal government take over the Supreme Court by letting the Senate dictate how the panel behaves.

"I know this is a controversial view, but I'm willing to say it," Alito said. "No provision in the Constitution gives them the authority to regulate the Supreme Court — period."

What do you think? Should Congress be able to control the Supreme Court to make sure that the justices aren't taking advantage of their positions?

Or is that the first step on a slippery slope that leads to destroying the effectiveness of the judicial branch?

Thank you to everyone who attended the August 22 Board of Supervisors (BOS) meeting! It was another good day for CPOC members to stand up for Conservative Patriot positions. Again, I was watching the Supervisors while we were speaking and strangely enough they were all ears????!!

The meeting started with Atheist Supervisor Foley and her progressive talking points on climate change as the "prayer." I was sick as that's not a prayer. We also had a minute of silence for the people on Maui. It was strange everyone had their head bowed the whole time. We thought there would be a prayer. We need to pray for Sup. Foley's soul!

Cheryl Frink gave two great presentations on Items 8 & 32 regarding the Registrar of Voters (ROV). ROV Bob Page was there during these agenda items.

Joette Koelsch gave wonderful speeches on Items 25 about AB 969 and on Item 33 and the eternal winter storm emergency.

It was great to hear Beth Culver's compelling speech also on Item 33.

The winter storm emergency has finally ended! Hooray!

As for Public Comment:

- ✓ Harumi Lucak gave a super speech on the Voters Choice Act.
- ✓ Stellar Stella Song was on fire and showed a post about the 13th Circuit Court Judge's report that "Dominion Voting Systems are designed to create fraud." Michelle Morgan spoke about how there is a NATIONWIDE NETWORK hooked up together during our elections (by the feds)! And, that there were not just Republicans but people from all political sides worried about our elections.
- ✓ Anny Beck spoke about the Election Summit and the tool Mike Lindell has come out with. Yeah!
- ✓ Pearl Boelter and Florita Sheldon, who wrote up the election talking points this week, spoke about the VCA and the ease and cost efficiency of precinct voting.
- ✓ Eileen McDermott gave another fiery speech about our elections.
- ✓ Cheryl Frink spoke about the California Biolab asking where are the other ones? Irvine??

Good news! By the end of August, CPOC will have conducted meetings on Election Integrity with all Supervisors except Sup. Foley! This once again demonstrates that CPOC is an instrumental and influential Orange County organization.

CPOC Members—Please let me know if you live in Sup. Foley's district!

We keep calling her office for a meeting and get nothing. Maybe if someone else asks for a meeting, she may give a meeting. We have a committee member who would give the presentation, but we would need the constituent to be there.

Unfortunately, Chairman Wagner backtracked somewhat on his promise to follow our plight for election integrity. He told us to work it out with ROV Bob Page. However, Bob Page has no power except what the Board of Supervisors give him. Wagner is the Chairman of the Board. The Board has 100% power to tell the ROV how to conduct elections. We will have to find a remedy for this.

September 12 is the next BOS meeting I know everyone is busy but so am I. I need EVERYONE to take time off work, school & fun to do our CIVIC DUTY and show up! We need a huge showing to let them know EVERYONE in OC wants:

1. Get rid of the Voter's Choice Act so we can have....
2. One day voting
3. Voter ID
4. Paper Ballots
5. Voting and counting in precincts.
6. NO machines, NO mail-in ballots

Free and fair elections should resonate with Republicans, Democrats and Independents!

Please put September 12 on your CALENDARS! Call your friends and family to come and speak or just show up to support us! I will send out all the talking points (in enough time) of the past 2 years so there will be enough for everyone. I look forward to having 1000 people show up and tell the Board Enough!

Thank you and God Bless!

It's Time to Cut Ties with the Republican Party

By Jim Hoft

In life, when you find out your friend is not there for you, will not defend you, ignores you, betrays you, fails you, and doesn't even like you – you move on.

It's better to be alone than to face the pain of betrayal over and over again.

Last night was the last straw.

The Marxist horde indicted not just President Trump, but 18 other conservatives, several who President Trump has never met in a made-up conspiracy that never existed.

And, once again, the Republican Party is silent – hiding in the corner.

It's time to move on.

Charlie Kirk wrote this last night (August 14).

Republicans did nothing about Bill Clinton flying to islands with minors

Republicans did nothing about Hillary Clinton smashing devices

Republicans did nothing about James Comey brazenly lying

Republicans did nothing about Andy McCabe plotting a silent coup against a sitting President

Republicans did nothing about BLM raising $100 million and breaking charitable giving laws

Republicans in Florida did nothing about James Biden's alleged fraud scheme involving a hospital system

Republicans in Arkansas did nothing about Hunter Biden's myriad crimes

Republicans have done nothing against ANTIFA and their interstate RICO operations

Republicans have done nothing against Fauci, EcoHealth Alliance, or the other fake scientists who promoted lies about Covid's origins to hide their own culpability

Why would Democrats be afraid of us? They run the country while Republican AGs and DAs quiver in fear and run for the hills.

Republicans did nothing when the entire government apparatus came after Trump.

The Republicans did nothing when the regime arrested and jailed hundreds of Trump supporters for walking inside the US Capitol. They were embarrassed to be associated with such people.

Republicans did nothing about the Biden Crime Family despite a laptop of evidence.

It's time to move on. We are done with these horrible party members who never supported us and never even liked us.

As one of the largest conservative grassroots media outlets in the country we cannot even get an audience with these party elites. And once again, they abandoned Trump and his voters.

Enough abuse.

Hi CPOC Patriots,

Summer is almost over with fall around the corner! I hope your summer was wonderful, restful, and happy. CPOC is off to an exciting new season of important action!

Those who attended the "Lowdown Hoedown" know what a fun and exciting day it was. It was an honor to meet Dr. John Eastman and hear his presentation. I will never forget that experience. (If you missed the event, be sure to see the special recap that featured four pages of photos.)

Great news – CPOC currently has 296 members, with new members joining almost every day! Thank you for telling your family, friends, and neighbors about Orange County's newest and influential organization. Our members are the best ambassadors for CPOC. You are the reason we keep on growing and the board truly appreciates your help and support in getting the word out about CPOC. They can join in person at our monthly meeting or online at conservativepatriotsofoc.org.

Thank you so much for your patriotism, perseverance, and prayers.

See you at the September meeting,

REPUBLICANS vs CONSERVATIVES

Conservative Political Action Conference (CPAC) is one of the leading conservative organizations. According to CPAC's Center for Legislative Accountability, below are the 2022 and lifetime ratings for Orange County's two Republican congressmen. We are not listing Democrats since we know their views when it comes to conservative issues.

Young Kim – 40th District 68 for 2022 and 64.59 lifetime
Michelle Steel – 45th District 71 for 2022 and 73.76 lifetime

THE FREEDOM INDEX

Let's find out if our Orange County representatives observe the principles of the U.S. Constitution with their votes. Obviously, the Constitution should be adhered to by both Democrats and Republicans. The New American Freedom Index is based on how elected officials adhere to the U.S. Constitution. Let's see how all six Orange County representatives did:

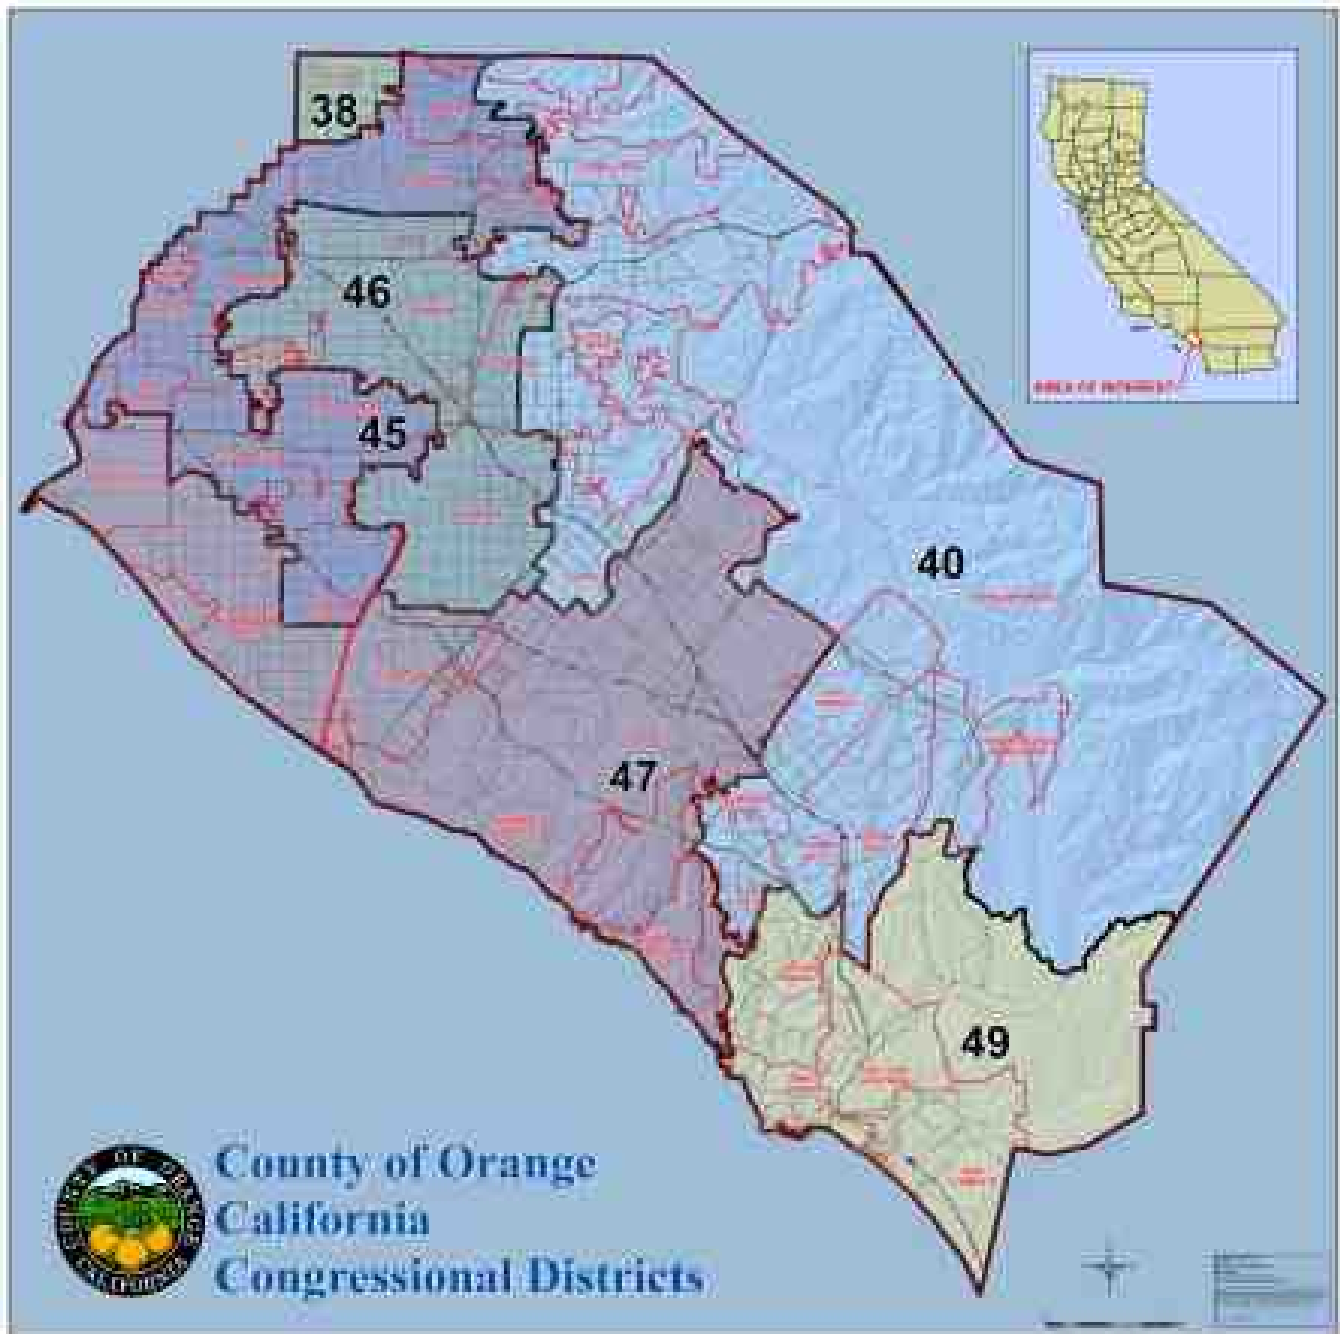

Lou Correa—46th Congressional District	16
Young Kim—40th Congressional District	68
Mike Levin—49th Congressional District	6
Katie Porter—47th Congressional District	7
Linda Sanchez—38th Congressional District	22
Michelle Steel—45th Congressional District	73

“YOU'RE FIRED ... and here's $450,000!”

The next time you are upset when writing a check to a utility company think about the $450,000 severance check written by the Orange County Power Authority to its FORMER Chief Executive Officer Brian Probolsky. The CEO was fired with questions surrounding his leadership or lack thereof.

The Voice of Orange County obtained documents that show Probolsky was paid this massive sum provided that he does not speak poorly about the agency. Think of that, the OCPA paid a former CEO $450,000 just so he doesn't say anything not nice about the agency.

Congresswoman Linda Sánchez (CD-38)

Congresswoman Young Kim (CD-40)

Congresswoman Michelle Steel (CD-45)

Congressman Lou Correa (CD-46)

Congresswoman Katie Porter (CD-47)

Congressman Mike Levin (CD-49)

Around the County

One of the many problems facing Representative Young Kim (40th Congressional District) is that she doesn't have much of a base of support. Obviously, the Marxist Democrats are not going to support anyone with an "R" after their name. So, while Kim is dancing around trying to work across the aisle, the Democrats are dancing around looking for a solid candidate to run against her in 2024.

The Never Trumper Kim also lacks support from Conservative Patriots who have been turned off by some key votes.

That's Kim happily standing in the Oval Office with VP Kamala "word salad" Harris and then-House Speaker Nancy Pelosi. The guy sitting at the desk rarely knows who he is, where he is and why he is there, but we will call him Joe Biden. Ask yourself if any America First congressman would have attended the signing of anything with Joe Biden.

The question is: Are there enough establishment Republicans in the district to give Kim a win next year? Probably not.

In 2022, MAGA Colonel Greg Raths (retired) was doing well in polling until the OC GOP establishment decided it was time to pour their time and money (lots of money) to save Young Kim. In the final weeks of the primary, it seemed that every day, Republicans in that district received at least one expensive glossy flyer promoting the hapless Kim.

That's how Kim won the primary. She was able to win the general election because her Democrat opponent Dr. Asif Mahmood left a lot to be desired.

In 2024, Kim might have a sterling opponent whose credentials could possibly earn him some Republican votes. From Joe Kerr's June 29 email message.

This is Joe Kerr, 34-year Fire Captain and labor leader.

For the last three decades, I've been running toward the problem - inside burning buildings, putting out fires, responding to disasters, and saving lives.

All while protecting working Californians as the first President of the Orange County Professional Firefighters Association, VP of the California Professional Firefighters, and VP of the Orange County Central Labor Council (AFL-CIO).

Now I'm running for Congress because we need someone who will run toward the problems facing our Nation - and solve them, not ignore them.

Washington D.C. is riddled with gridlock, corruption, divisive rhetoric, the lack of civility, and grandstanding. Career politicians like Young Kim are adding fuel to the fire - and I know how to put those out.

Let's Read!

Here are links to some articles that Conservative Patriots might want to read.

God Bless America

That's the title of Katherine Daigle's column in the July issue of Christian Times magazine. Although Independence Day was two months ago, it is something Patriots should celebrate throughout the year. Click here to read her informative column that opens with:

As we celebrate our nation's birthday the 4th of July it is our 247th Independence Day of the United States of America. Americans have a duty to remember the profound significance of this day in United States history. It is the day we commemorate the birth of our nation, under the Constitution and the freedoms it guarantees. The United States stands as a beacon of liberty, with Constitutional laws that govern our country and protect the rights of its "citizens". However, the path to this freedom was not without sacrifice.

Dear Editor,

The June issue was fantastic! Great to see what you are all doing to fight against the leftist agenda.

Mollie L.

Former CPOC member; now living in Texas

Dear Editor,

I want to make sure CPOC members were aware of and maybe they watched at least some of Mike Lindell's Election Summit that was live streamed on August 16 and 17. I watched much of it and noted that a lot of the info about the corrupt 2020 election described was known/presented at Lindell's Symposium two years ago—but now they have more details and they've created a "plan".

The link below contains all the segments in 'boxes' of the Summit—think the most comprehensive are the first four, one of which describes the "plan" they've developed.

I thought Lindell's opening speech, "How We Got Here" was really good and the video, starting at 26:30 mark, which gives a timeline of the 2020 election problems, was excellent.

The speakers were excellent with factual, provable presentations.

Also, representatives from each state gave presentations regarding the actions they're taking to secure elections.

It was good to learn that there are VARIOUS groups in California working towards those ends. They mentioned Shasta county, as did a couple other people during the Summit, but I wonder if the legislation (AB 969 Elections: voting systems—passed the Assembly and now for 2nd reading in the Senate) in Sacramento will render Shasta's paper ballots illegal!

Click here to read the summary and learn about this outstanding two-day event.

Sincerely,

Betty Robinson

Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope by the Holy Spirit.

We connect and serve the patriot community in Orange County, California

All who cherish our Constitution are welcome

Our Mission

Connecting and Serving the Conservative, Liberty-minded Community in Orange County, California

What We Believe

- Limited government,
- Local control,
- Sound fiscal management,
- The free market
- Holding elected officials accountable.

What We Do

The Conservative Patriots of Orange County sponsor educational programs and activities to support conservative principles and candidates in all elections. We believe that the Constitution of the United States guarantees the inherent rights of "we the people" by limiting the power of government.
